

Projects

The structure of the LSC InfectoOptics was designed according to the model of a DFG Collaborative Research Centre with scientific projects combining the two disciplines biology and optics/photonics.

After the successful identification phase, the LSC InfectoOptics is setting new impulses for the consolidation phase. Both promising projects including new aspects will be continued and completely new concepts will be started.